TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgement vii

Chapter One 1
Orthodox Christianity vis-à-vis Postcommunist Transformation:
A Conceptual Framework
Nelly Bekus and Michał Wawrzonek
- Political Culture, Secularization and Desecularization
- Political Religion
- Doctrinal Specifics and Historical Legacy of Orthodoxy: Sobornost' and Symphony
- Orthodoxy and Post-communism

Chapter Two 37
"Russkiy mir": A Conceptual Model of the "Orthodox Civilization"
Michał Wawrzonek

Chapter Three 71
On the Political Mission of Orthodoxy in Belarus and its Consequences for the Church and State
Nelly Bekus
- The Diversity of Religious Experience in the Aftermath of Socialism
- Lacking a religious component in the national revival: the case of Belarus
- The Rise and Fall of Religious Pluralism: Unfulfilled Democratic Promises in Belarus
- The History of Orthodoxy in the Belarusian Lands
- Alternative Visions of Belarusian Religious Tradition: Political Implications for Cultural and Religious Estrangement
- Defining Belarus by its Orthodox tradition
- The Official Policy of the BOC: Russian Spirit on the Belarusian Lands
- The Alternative Orthodox Church. Becoming Political Opposition

Chapter Four 159
The Serbian Orthodox Church Facing the Challenges of the Post-Yugoslav Space
Mirella Korzeniewska-Wiszniewska
Serbian Orthodox Church in Social Space: Paths to the Present
The Serbian Orthodox Church in the Face of Political and Social Problems After the Year 2000
The Present Legal Bases of the Serbian Orthodox Church's Status in the Republic of Serbia
The Status of the Serbian Orthodox Church in the Territory of Former Yugoslavia: An Outline of the Problem
The Relations between the Serbian and Russian Orthodox Churches

Chapter Five 261
Orthodox Church and Orthodox Tradition as the Components of the Political Culture in Ukraine
Michał Wawrzonek
Shaping the New Rules for Religion in Post-Soviet Ukraine
The Influence of Orthodoxy on the Form of Ukrainian Political Culture

Index 329